TELEGRAMS.

A "WHITE ELEPHANT."

LONDON, March 9th.

Sir William Vernon Harcourt, stated in the House of Commons that the island of Cyprus had proved absolutely useless to Great Britain, but having accepted the bonus of its possession, it behaved her to do her best with the island. [The noble lord has made this hair-raising discovery rather late in the day, hasn't he?—Ed., Hongkong Telegraph.]

A NEW MOVE.

The Duke of Cambridge proceeds to Malta on a tour of inspection.

(Special to Shanghai Mercury.)

WEI-HAI-WEI.

NAGASAKI, March 1st.
The Japanese are destroying the forts and big guns at Wei-hai-wei.

THE CHINESE REPULSED.

YOKOHAMA, March 1st.

Marshal Oyama sends a telegram, dated 27th ult., stating that on the morning of the 24th ult., the first division of the Japanese army stationed about Kaiting-shan, on the Chinese near Tai-ping-shan. On the same afternoon about 12,000 Chinese, with twenty guns opened an attack from Pelmates, Tonchats and Faoymiao. After heavy cannonading the Japanese attacked the Chinese centre, and at 3 o'clock that afternoon the Chinese were repulsed, and fled toward Yingkow (Nanchwang). The Japanese loss was 20 killed and 250 wounded, including 7 officers. The Chinese had 100 killed, and the number of wounded is unknown. The natives state that the Chinese made the attack in full force, numbering 20,000, and that they were led by Generals Sung, Ma, Shang, Chang, and Sun.

NO HITCH THIS TIME.

PEKING, March 2nd.

There is every likelihood of peace being soon proclaimed between China and Japan. The credentials and documents for the Envoy Extraordinary are nearly finished, being settled by telegraph, so that no hitch in the arrangements may occur. The departure of Li Hung-chang has not yet been settled, but he is expected to leave Tientsin about the 10th or 12th inst.

THE U.S. MINISTER ACTS GO-BETWEEN.

PEKING, March 2nd.

Li Hung-chang is still here. All the leading officials are of opinion that it is best to make a third attempt to negotiate with Japan for peace. The American Minister is acting as transmitting agent in arranging a Conference and reception by telegraph. Li Hung-chang will leave here as soon as arrangements have been completed.

PEACE CREDENTIALS COMPLETED, LI HUNG-CHANG LEAVES PEKING.

March 4th.

All arrangements with regard to credentials and other documents have now been completed, Viceroy Li Hung-chang leaves Peking to-morrow, on his way to Japan.

THE WAR IN MANCHURIA.

OCCUPATION OF TUNG-YUN-TAI.

YOKOHAMA, 3rd March.

A telegram, dated Haicheng the night of the 28th February, from a native correspondent, states that on that day the First Japanese Army attacked the Chinese forces encamped between the Laoyang and Nanchwang roads. The fifth Japanese brigade made an attack on the right wing of the Chinese and routed them, and they fled towards Taifun. The Japanese main column attacked and routed the Chinese at Changtak. The sixth Japanese brigade proceeding along the Laoyang road joined their main division and after a smart fight occupied Tung-yen-tai and the vicinities en route to Laoyang. The Japanese loss was ten killed and eight-wounded. The Chinese lost 150 dead behind them.

KOREAN OFFICIALS ACCOMPANY THE JAPANESE ARMY.

YOKOHAMA, 3rd March.

A telegram, dated Haicheng, the 28th February, from a native correspondent, states that on that day the First Japanese Army attacked the Chinese forces encamped between the Laoyang and Nanchwang roads. The fifth Japanese brigade made an attack on the right wing of the Chinese and routed them, and they fled towards Taifun. The Japanese main column attacked and routed the Chinese at Changtak. The Japanese loss was ten killed and eight-wounded. The Chinese lost 150 dead behind them.

WE REGRET TO HEAR THAT MR. A. HUNT, AN EMPLOYEE OF MESSRS. A. S. WATSON & CO., WHO TOOK PASSAGE FOR ENGLAND BY THE "PALLMOR" ON JANUARY 1ST, AND WHO WAS AT THAT TIME FAR FROM WELL, SUCCEEDED TO THE EFFECTS OF HEART DISEASE NEAR COLOMBO, AND WAS BURIED AT SEA.

PEACE ENVOYS WILL PROBABLY MEET AT SHIMONOSEKI.

It is stated that Shimonoeki will probably be the place fixed for the meeting of the Envoys to negotiate for peace.

ANOTHER CHINESE REPULSE.

An official telegram from Haicheng, dated the 28th ult., giving my former telegram from a native correspondent. The Japanese have occupied the entire district from Salyant to Taifun. The Japanese will make further movements to-morrow. The Chinese had in action 15,000, with ten field guns, under the command of General Yih. During the action another force of over 3,000 Chinese troops, coming from the eastward, made an attack on Haicheng, but after a brief encounter, were repulsed.

SEVERAL TOWNS CAPTURED.

In a telegram from Haicheng, dated the 1st instant, General Nodzu reports that the third division of the Japanese army, commenced their advance at 8 o'clock in the morning; soon after their advance guard encountered 2,000 Chinese soldiers. Captain Hayashi's battalion joined his forces with the third division, completely routing the Chinese, and capturing Konsobu by noon. After this the advance guard drove 3,000 other Chinese troops from Santaiyu. The Japanese outpost's guard attacked Taifun, Lushukio, and Kunfants, from which places the enemy retreated to the north. The main Chinese forces are gathered only a short distance from the Japanese front. There was a severe snowstorm, but it ceased towards the afternoon.

THE WOUNDED AT NEWCHWANG.

No authentic details have been received about the fighting near Newchwang. A telegram thence to-day reports 600 wounded received at the Red Cross Hospital this week. Funds for this establishment are much needed.

A SPECIAL DECREE.

March 3rd.

Prince Kung has obtained a Decree of Mercy from the Emperor that officers and soldiers defeated in battle are not to be decapitated if it can be proved that they have not committed excesses while retreating, but are to be given the chance of retrieving their faults. Orders have therefore been issued to all the Generals of divisions at the front to post the above edict in the various camps. After a defeat, soldiers are to form again according to their respective regiments, at any spot previously indicated by their Generals.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

W. ROBINSON & Co., piano builders, tuners and repairers.

No less than 70 steamers cleared from Shanghai for the Peiho on the 4th inst., and left for Tientsin the following morning.

CHIEF Inspector Corcoran has been appointed Deputy Superintendent of the Fire Brigade.

The death is reported of Mr. N. Smith, of the Chinese Customs Service, at Ningpo on the 28th ultimo, after a long and painful illness.

THE Indian Merchant Shipping Bill (1894), about which there has been so much talk of late, has, according to a Calcutta paper, been "shelved" till next cold season.

Mr. J. W. Foster, legal adviser to the Chinese Government in carrying on the peace negotiations with Japan, left Shanghai for Tientsin on the 6th instant to meet the Viceroy Li.

AN Emergency meeting of St John's Lodge, No. 618, S.C., will be held in Freemasons' Hall, Zetland Street this evening, at 8.30 for 9 o'clock precisely. Visiting brethren are cordially invited.

EX-CHEM Inspector Matheson, a very old and popular member of the Hongkong Police Force, left here yesterday afternoon by the Prins Hendrik bound for his home in Dundee.

THE Mission steam-launch Dag Spruce, will call alongside vessels hoisting code pennant C, between 9 and 10.30 a.m., on Sunday, to convey men ashore to the 11 o'clock service, returning about 12.30 p.m.

A BREACH of promises case, which will furnish some interesting disclosures, will, says an Allahabad paper, come on shortly, unless a settlement can be arrived at. The plaintiff is a British officer.

AT a meeting of shareholders of the National Bank of China held to-day a dividend of $1.25 per share was declared on all shares on which calls were not in arrears on the 31st December last. The report of the meeting will be found in another column.

COLLARD & COLLARD PIANOS at W. Robinson & Co.

THE British steamer Castor, Captain Sellars, which arrived here today from Shanghai, landed 300 seamen belonging to the ill-fated Peking Squadron at Foochow on her way thither. The captain of the Castor also brought passing the Russian torpedo-boats Vladivostok and Gryazdaik off Breaker Point at 5 p.m. yesterday.

ON the 12th instant information was received at Tientsin to the effect that "General" von Hoenken had met with an accident near Ho-ho-ho. Messrs. John Price, Dering, and Chang Yen went to the assistance of the injured general and were expected to return to Tien-tsin with him on the 13th.

BY special request the pantomime "Robinson Crusoe," under the patronage of Commodore Boyce, R.N., and the officers of Her Majesty's Fleet, will be given at the Theatre Royal, Hall, at 9 p.m. to-night. The house will be glad to hear, to be filled to overflowing, as those who have not yet secured seats had better be at the theatre in good time.

COLLARD & COLLARD PIANOS at W. Robinson & Co.

AN Inspection having broken out in Muscat, H.M.S. Bramble was, on the 18th ult., ordered to proceed there at once to protect the British interests. The town of Muscat was then in possession of the rebels, headed by Sheikh Abdulla-bin-Saleh and Hamad-al-Jah, while the Sultan of Muscat and his brother were holding the fort of Jalali and Merani, respectively, with some followers. The Political Resident at the Persian Gulf has proceeded to the scene of disturbance.

AT the Magistrate to-day, before Mr. Wodehouse, five Chinchoo coolies, servants of Tan-tan, were charged at the instance of Inspector Quicley with gambling in a house in Teng-wa Lane. The defendants were fined $5 each, or in default fourteen days' hard labour. Most of them decided to "do time."

INSPECTOR W. Stanton, Chief of the local Detective Department, arrived here to-day from London by the "blue-jacket" steamer Titan. The ubiquitous Inspector shipped a contingent of Metropolitan constables by the Titan (in number, we believe) which he duly delivered to the consignee—the Captain Superintendent of Police—shortly after his arrival here.

IT is reported that Mr. McCalmon, the owner of the magnificent yacht Gralda, has been offered by the Japanese a sum exceeding $10,000 the cost of that vessel, on condition that she should be allowed to proceed at once to the East. The Gralda is partly armoured, has quick-firing guns, and was despatched by the Japanese Government as a fast despatch-boat. It is the Mediterranean recently that the Gralda attained a speed of 21 knots. After this the advance guard drove 3,000 other Chinese troops from Santaiyu. The Japanese outpost's guard attacked Taifun, Lushukio, and Kunfants, from which places the enemy retreated to the north. The main Chinese forces are gathered only a short distance from the Japanese front. There was a severe snowstorm, but it ceased towards the afternoon.
